OCEANIC CHRISTINE LTD.,
OCEANFLEET SHIPPING, LTD.,
and WESTERN BULK CARRIERS AS Defendants

C.A. NO. _____
Admiralty Rule 9(h)

COMPLAINT

1. Plaintiff, QT Trading, L.P. (“QT”) by its attorneys, Hill Rivkins LLP, complaining of the M/V Ocean Trader, in rem, Oceanic Christiane Ltd. (“OCL”), Oceanfleet Shipping Ltd., (“OFSL”), and Western Bulk Carriers AS (“Western Bulk”) (collectively “Defendants”), alleges upon information and belief:

A.

2. This is an admiralty or maritime claim within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 1333 and Rule 9(h) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, or is brought pursuant to 9 U.S.C.A. § 8, for preservation of in rem security for arbitration.

B.

3. At and during all the times hereinafter mentioned, QT was the consignee and owner of the cargo in question and brings this action on its own behalf and on behalf of all who may become interested in the cargo. QT had and now has the legal status and principal office and place of business stated in Schedule A attached.

C.

4. At and during all the times hereinafter mentioned, OCL, OFSL, and Western Bulk had and now have the legal status and offices and places of business stated in Schedule A. They were, and now are, engaged in business as common carriers of merchandise by water for hire, and owned, operated, managed, chartered and controlled the above-named vessel which was within the jurisdiction of this Court during its discharge of the cargo at issue.

D.

5. On or about October 3, 2013, at the port of Iskenderun, Turkey, the M/V OCEAN TRADER and defendants OCL, OFSL, and Western Bulk received, in good order and condition, the shipment described in Schedule A, which the vessel and defendants OCL, OFSL, and Western Bulk accepted and agreed to transport for certain consideration to the Port of Houston, Texas.

E.

6. Thereafter, the vessel arrived at the Port of Houston, where the cargo was found short delivered, contaminated by seawater or other aggressive chemical substance, and /or physically damaged, causing monetary damages to Plaintiff as enumerated herein. On information and belief, the vessel and defendants OCL, OFSL, and Western Bulk breached, failed and violated their duties and obligations as common carriers and were otherwise at fault. The vessel was made aware of these damages, placed on notice, and threatened with in rem seizure and sale, during its discharge at the port of Houston, and the vessel offered a "letter of undertaking" as security to prevent its arrest, obligating the vessel to post in rem security in this court, which is hereby demanded.

F.

7. Plaintiff further alleges, in the alternative and without waiving the above cause of action, that all defendants were bailees of plaintiff's cargo described in Schedule A. Defendants delivered the cargo described in Schedule A in a damaged condition which did not exist at the time of plaintiff's/bailor's delivery to the bailees as described in Schedule A. Defendants breached their duties and obligations as bailees and were negligent.

G.

8. Plaintiff was the shipper, consignee and/or owner of the shipment and brings this action on its own behalf and, as agent and trustee, on behalf of and for the interest of all parties who may be or become interested in the shipment, as their respective interests may ultimately appear, and plaintiff is entitled to maintain this action.

H.

9. Plaintiff has duly performed all duties and obligations on its part to be performed.

I.

10. By reason of the above-stated premises, plaintiff has sustained damages, as nearly as same can now be estimated, no part of which has been paid although duly demanded, in the amount of TWO HUNDRED THIRTEEN THOUSAND THREE HUNDRED EIGHTY-FOUR AND 79/100 DOLLARS ($213,384.79) for which Plaintiff demands recovery from all defendants, jointly and severally.

J.

11. All and singular the premises are true and within the admiralty, maritime, and pendent jurisdiction of the United States and of this Honorable Court.

Wherefore, Plaintiff prays:

1. That summons in due form of law may issue against defendants;
2. That a judgment may be entered in favor of plaintiff against defendants, one or more of them, for the amount of plaintiff's damages together with interest and the costs and disbursements of this action;
3. That process in due form of law according to the practice of this court in causes of admiralty or maritime jurisdiction may issue against said the vessel, her engines, etc., and that all persons having or claiming any interest therein be cited to appear and answer under oath all and singular the matters stated, and this court will be pleased to pronounce a judgment in favor of plaintiff for damages together with interest, costs and disbursements, and the motor vessel may be condemned and sold to pay therefor; and
4. That this court will grant to plaintiff such other and further relief as may be just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,
